

Process Control Panels Ltd

Modern Slavery Act -Transparency Statement

Process Control Panels are a manufacturer of quality control panels.

Process Control Panels is committed to ensuring that there is no modern-day slavery or human trafficking in our supply chains or any part of our business.

Our Anti-Slavery Policy Statement reflects our commitment to acting ethically and with integrity in all our business relationships.

The company will not support or deal with any business knowingly involved in slavery or human trafficking.

The Company Directors and Senior Management shall take responsibility for implementing this policy statement and its objectives and shall provide adequate resources (training etc.) to ensure that slavery and human trafficking is not taking place within the organisation or within its supply chains. The Company's Anti-Slavery Policy will be displayed on the company website.

Process Control Panels has a zero tolerance to slavery and human trafficking in our supply chains or in any part of our business.

All new and existing employees are subjected to right to work checks to ensure that Process Control Panels Ltd does not employ illegal workers thereby ensuring compliance with the Immigration, Asylum and Nationality Act 2006.

Process Control Panels Ltd have implemented an Anti-Slavery Policy that reflects our commitment to acting ethically and with integrity in all our business dealings.

Employees are required to immediately report any possible breach of the code of conduct to their line Manager, Human Resources or a member of the Senior Management Team.

This policy applies to all those employed by Process Control Panels Ltd.

The policy will be regularly reviewed by the Directors to ensure its continuing suitability and relevance to the company activities.

September 1st, 2018